

Featuring Covered Bridge Locations and Movie Sites

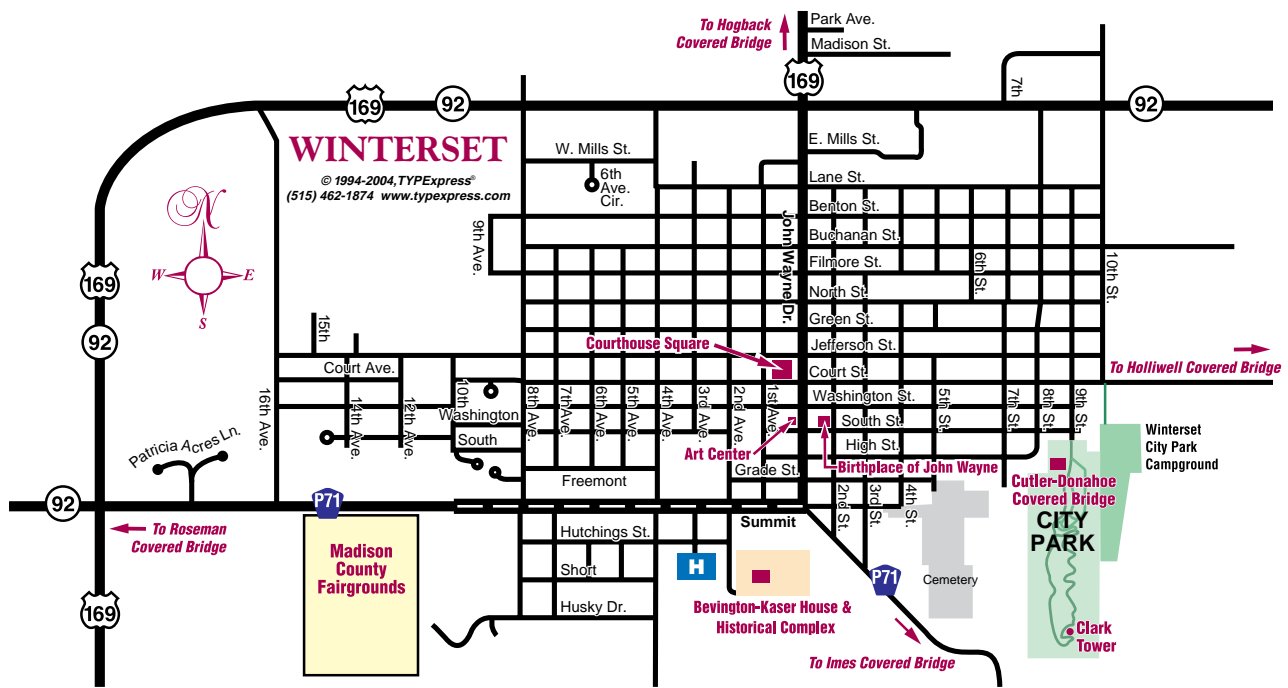

This map is provided to you by the Madison County Chamber of Commerce Reproduction rights granted for personal use only to Lorimor

© 1994-2004, TYPEXpress® (515) 462-1874 www.typexpress.com

- | | | | | | | | |
|--|--------------------|--|----------------|--|--------------------------|--|--------------------|
| | Interstate Highway | | State Highway | | Signed Routes to Bridges | | Rock Road (gravel) |
| | U.S. Highway | | County Highway | | Paved Road | | Municipal Limits |

THE BRIDGES OF MADISON COUNTY were originally covered to help preserve the large flooring timbers, which were much more expensive to replace than the lumber used on the bridge sides and roof.

Roseman Covered Bridge (1883)

107 feet in length, Roseman was renovated in 1992 at a cost of $152,515. It is featured in the movie and book versions of The Bridges of Madison County.

Cutler-Donahoe Covered Bridge (1870)

79 feet in length, Cutler-Donahoe bridge is located in Winterset's City Park.

Holliewell Covered Bridge (1880)

The longest covered bridge, Holliewell measures 122 feet. Featured in The Bridges of Madison County movie, it was renovated in 1995 for $225,000.

Hogback Covered Bridge (1884)

97 feet in length, Hogback was renovated in 1992 at a cost of $118,810.

Imes Covered Bridge (1870)

Measuring 81 feet in length, Imes sits over a ravine in a park near St. Charles.

Cedar Covered Bridge (1883)

76 feet long, Cedar is pictured on the cover of The Bridges of Madison County novel. It was destroyed by arson on Sept. 3, 2002. A replica is being built.

 Birthplace of John Wayne

John Wayne began his life in Winterset in 1907. The 4-room home features Wayne memorabilia and is open daily (an admission fee is charged).

 North River Stone Schoolhouse

Built in 1874 of native limestone, the school was in continuous use until 1945. It is on the National Register of Historic Places.

 Winterset Art Center

Today, the Center features paintings, prints, and other artwork by local artists. It was a station on the Underground Railroad during the Civil War era.

 Bevington-Kaser House & Historical Complex

The 18-acre Complex includes many historical structures, including a log school, the 1871 train depot and many more. The Museum displays thousands of historical artifacts, fossils, equipment and other fascinating treasures.

Clark Tower

Erected in 1926 in Winterset City Park, this 25 foot native limestone tower is a memorial to one of the county's first pioneer families. It offers an impressive view of the Middle River valley below.

OTHER MADISON COUNTY, IOWA LOCATIONS IN THE FILM THE BRIDGES OF MADISON COUNTY:

Northside Cafe

In existence on the square since 1876, it is the restaurant in the Bridges film where Robert Kincaid stops for coffee and offers Lucy Redfield a stool.

Texaco Station

A closed Conoco station at John Wayne Dr. and Greene St. was transformed into a 1965-era Texaco station through Hollywood's magic. It has now been remodeled to house an Internet service provider and cyber cafe.

Pheasant Run

This tavern on the southeast corner of the square was used for the interior shots of The Blue Note Lounge in the Bridges movie.

Stone Bridge

The gracefully arched stone bridge in a park where Francesca and Robert go for their 'getaway' picnic is actually located right in Winterset's City Park, just south of the Cutler-Donahoe covered bridge.

Pammel Park Middle River Ford

The shallow river crossing where Francesca's grown children discuss her diaries is located in Pammel State Park just southwest of Winterset.

various admission prices are charged at these locations.*

DISCOVER THE MAGIC! Madison County, Iowa offers a number of dining, camping and lodging facilities. Group motor-coach tours are also available. For more information, contact:

Madison County Chamber of Commerce

73 Jefferson St., Winterset, Iowa 50273
 (800) 298-6119 • (515) 462-1185
 FAX (515) 462-1393
 chamber@madisoncounty.com
 http://www.madisoncounty.com

Reproduction rights granted for personal use only